1864

FIRST QUERY -- Are all the Meetings for Worship and Discipline attended? Do Friends avoid unbecoming behavior therein? And is the hour of meeting observed?

SECOND -- Are Friends preserved in Christian love one toward another? And do they avoid and discourage tale-bearing and detraction? And when differences arise, are endeavors used speedily to end them?

THIRD -- Do Friends endeavor, by example and precept, to educate their children, and those under their care, in the principles of the Christian religion, and in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel? Do they guard them against pernicious reading, and from corrupt conversation? And are they encouraged to read the Holy Scriptures diligently?

FOURTH -- Are Friends clear of importing, vending, distilling, and the unnecessary use of all intoxicating liquors; and attending places of diversion? And do they observe moderation and temperance on all occasions?

FIFTH -- Are the necessities of the poor, and the circumstances of those who may appear likely to require aid, inspected and relieved? Are they advised and assisted in such employments as they are capable of; and is due care taken to promote the school-education of their children?

SIXTH -- Do Friends maintain a testimony against priests' and ministers' wages? Against slavery; oaths; bearing arms, and all military services; trading in goods taken in war; and against lotteries?

SEVENTH -- Are Friends careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances, and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage; or in hazardous or speculative trade? Are they just in their dealings, and punctual in complying with their contracts and engagements; and in paying their debts seasonably? And where any give reasonable grounds for fear in these respects, is due care extended to them? (There was a period and not question mark at the end of this sentence in the book)

EIGHTH -- Is care taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to endeavor to evince to those who will not be reclaimed, the spirit of meekness and love, before judgment is placed upon them?
