

Excerpts from
WHITE RIVER MONTHLY MEETING MEN'S MINUTES
1860-1879

Notes to the reader about the transcription of these minutes:

These are excerpted sentences or paragraphs from the White River Monthly Meeting Men's Minutes, 1860-1879, that include the mention of Winchester, Winchester Preparative Meeting, Winchester Quarterly Meetinghouse, or otherwise refer to Winchester's Quaker heritage.

In the original minutes, capitalization was inconsistent and has been standardized. The abbreviations "etc." and "&" are used frequently and they have been copied as they appeared. Parentheses are shown as they are found in the original minutes. Blanks are indicated by the word {blank}. The page numbers (i.e., page 1:) are the page numbers that are in the minutes book.

Names have been copied in most cases as they were spelled in the original minutes. Sometimes several variations of the same name occurred. If the spelling was questionable or the handwriting was difficult to decipher, the spelling of names was corrected using the following references: "History of Randolph County, Indiana" by E. Tucker, 1882; "Randolph County, Indiana 1818-1990" compiled by the Randolph County Historical Society, © 1991; "Our Special Heritage – Sesquicentennial History of Indiana Yearly Meeting of Friends (Quakers) 1821-1971" by Richard P. Ratcliff, 1970; "Indiana Friends Heritage 1821-1996 – The 175th Anniversary History of Indiana Yearly Meeting of Friends (Quakers)" by Gregory P. Hinshaw, n.d.; and Winchester Monthly Meeting Minutes, 1875 1879.

The word "continued" as used in these minutes refers more often than not to long-term, ongoing committee work as in this example: "The committee is continued for that purpose {to collect money} and are directed to report in 10th month next."
